PARENT INVOLVEMENT DISTRICT PLAN 2017-2018

All school districts receiving Title I, Part A funds are required under Section 1118 (a) (2) of the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) to develop a written parent involvement policy for the school district that establishes the district's expectations and specifically describes how the district will meet the required components of the policy.

Program Guidelines

What is Parental Involvement?

A process of community action that enriches the entire educational spectrum...

- At home
- At school
- In the community

What creates a strong partnership with parents?

- Interaction with the school
- School interest in family by making positive phone calls
- Home visits
- Orientation sessions at school where staff members and parents work cooperatively together

What happens when parents show an interest in school?

For the Student:

- ❖ Higher esteem
- ❖ Increased motivation
- ❖ Willingness to learn

For the Parent:

- ❖ Gains confidence
- ❖ Awareness of a parent's impact on a child's development

- ❖ Gain information about school activities
- ❖ Understanding of the child's learning behavior
- ❖ Observe the child with peers
- ❖ Involved with the child in the child's own setting
- ❖ Classroom observation
- ❖ Reinforce school skills at home
- ❖ Meet other parents in the community

For the Teacher:

- ❖ Discuss the individual needs of students
- ❖ Learn more information about the students
- ❖ More communication with parents
- ❖ Explain classroom materials and strategies being used
- ❖ Better understanding about the community being served

For the School:

- ❖ Increased effectiveness of school programs
- ❖ Increased enrichment activities
- ❖ Better communication between home and school
- ❖ Awareness of the needs of parents and the community

What activities contribute to a successful parental involvement program?

- Classroom observations
- Classroom participation
- Involvement in the total environment of the child

Who can volunteer?

- Parents
- Senior Citizens
- Students
- Working men and women
- Community people
- Business members

Volunteer Guidelines:

1. Volunteers are guided by school policies, rules, and regulations, under the direction of a staff member.
2. Class work is always confidential.
3. The teacher is a certified employee under the laws of the state and the district.
4. School staff will supervise volunteers.
5. All volunteers must work with staff members in a professional manner.
